Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth.

15th March 2020

The virus is here,
But do not fear.
School may be out,
But don't laze about.
While from school you're away,
Do a page every day.
It's not a test,
Just try your best!

Memory Verse

I am crucified with Christ:
nevertheless I live; yet not I,
but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

Galatians 2:20

Chorus of the Week: Number 76

L-e-a-v-e at once,
S-i-n and sorrow;
Come to J-e-s-u-s,
Joy will surely follow.

Chorus

J-o-y, j-o-y,
Joy instead of sorrow;
Come to J-e-s-u-s,

Story Time

This is a story that Aunty Rhoda's Gran told her when she was a little girl.

One day a very long time ago, before any of us were born, two friends, Jimmy and Tom, were walking along through the town. They were glad to have a day off school and were heading out to enjoy themselves.

All of a sudden Jimmy stopped. He had seen a bike propped up against a wall and it had no lock on it. He had always wanted a bike and now he decided that he would just take this one. "Tom", he said, "Look behind and see if anyone is watching us."

"There is nobody watching us" said Tom.

"Good" exclaimed Jimmy. "Now will you go and look around the corner and check if anyone is coming who will see us?"

"There's nobody coming" reported Tom. "Why? What are you going to do?"

"Shh" whispered Jimmy. "I am going to take that bike."

Now Tom had been going to Sunday School every week, and just last Sunday the memory verse was Genesis 16:13

"Thou God seest me."

"Stop Jimmy" Tom said, "you forgot to look up."

"What do you mean?" asked Jimmy.

"Last Sunday", replied Tom, "we learnt that God can see us all the time, and He will see you taking the bike."

Well that made Jimmy think and he left the bike where it was.

It is true that God can see us all the time. He knows our thoughts, our words and our actions. When Jimmy heard that God could see him, he changed his mind about stealing the bike.

So boys and girls, if you are tempted to do something wrong when your parents aren't watching, or when your teacher isn't looking, don't forget to look up.
