Memory Verse

Romans 5:7,8

Chorus of the Week: Number 115

Tune: Stand up, stand up for Jesus

Good works can never save you;
No merits of your own
Can purchase your salvation
Or for your sins atone.
But if you trust the Saviour
Who bore sin's penalty,
He'll grant you His salvation
For all eternity.

Story Time

"Mum, how did you get that huge scar on your knee?" asked Rosie one day. "It looks as if it was really sore."

"Oh it was," answered Mum. "I will tell you the story of how I got it." Mum and Rosie sat comfortably together and Mum began her story.

"When I was a young girl I had a little donkey. We kept him in a field at the back of my house and sometimes I got to ride him if my Dad was there. When I got older I asked if I could ride the donkey into town. We lived a little bit outside the town and I wanted to go and get library books.

Well, Mum and Dad decided to get me a bike so that I could go into the town. The first day I was allowed to go, Mum told me that I must get off the bike where the road came into the town, because the hill was very steep and I might be going too fast to be able to stop. It was a beautiful day as I went zooming along on the bike, with the warm summer breeze blowing my hair out behind me. This is too much fun, I thought, sure I will keep going on the hill, I'll be fine. But I wasn't fine, the front wheel hit a little hole in the road and I came flying off the bike and landed on my knees on the road. I could hardly get up, and a neighbour saw me and brought me and my bike home. I had to tell my Mum that I had disobeyed her instructions.

I thought I knew best but it took that accident to make me realise that my Mum was right. Well, my knee was so sore that I wasn't able to ride my bike for well over a week, and I had no library books either."

The story of Rosie's Mum thinking she could get away with disobeying her Mum reminds us of two verses in the Bible. Firstly, Numbers 32:23 says

Be sure your sin will find you out.

You may think you can disobey God and get away with it, but even if nobody else sees, God sees, and God remembers. You cannot hide your sin from God.

Rosie's mum trying to do things her own way reminds us of Isaiah 53:6

All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all.

We have all disobeyed God and sinned against Him, but He has provided a way for us to be forgiven, because the Lord Jesus Christ suffered the punishment we deserved when He died on the cross.
