Memory Verse

Isaiah 52:14

As many were astonished at thee; his visage was so marred more than any man,
and his form more than the sons of men:

Chorus of the Week: Number 92

The Bible stands like a rock undaunted
'Mid the raging storms of time;
Its pages burn with the truth eternal
And they glow with a light sublime.

*The Bible stands
Though the hills may tumble,
It will firmly stand
Though the earth shall crumble,
I will plant my feet on its firm foundation
For the Bible stands.*

Prophecy: The Reason Christ Died

The wages of sin is death. The Lord Jesus Christ did no sin. So why did He die?

Isaiah prophesied that He would die, not for His own sins, but for our sins. Find which verse in Isaiah ch 53 tells us this.

Isaiah ch 53 v ____

But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

Key Words

TABERNACLE

Friday

Read about the Tower of Babel in Genesis 11:1-9

Read the passage to find out if these are true or false.	True	False
At first, everyone in the world spoke the same language.
They all decided to live in a field in Ireland.
They decided to dig a big hole to the centre of the earth.
They used slime for mortar.
The Lord gave them different languages.
They couldn't understand what others were saying.
They stayed in the same place and finished the tower.
The name of the place was Babel.

Saturday

Many times in the Old Testament, God spoke directly to people. Today He doesn't speak to us in a way that we hear with our ears, but He speaks to us through the Bible.

Here are some things God said to people. Write the names of the people He said each statement to.

Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee.

Lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart.

Thou art old and stricken in years,
and there remaineth
yet very much land to be possessed.

Thou shalt not build the house; but thy son ...
he shall build the house
unto my name.

Thou shalt save Israel from the hand of the Midianites: have not I sent thee?

Two nations are in thy womb, ... and the elder shall serve the younger.

Where art
thou?

Man looketh on the
outward appearance,
but the Lord looketh
on the heart.

Make thee an ark
of gopher wood.

Arise, go up to Bethel, and dwell there: and
make there an altar unto God.

Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth?

Story Time

Molly was born over 100 years ago in the west of Ireland. She grew up on a little farm with her four brothers. When Molly grew old enough to get a job, she started working in a big house in England, helping a rich lady with her housework. It was so exciting, and a little scary, leaving home to go on the train to Dublin and onto the ferry to cross the Irish Sea. She had never even seen the sea before, so it was all new to her.

After a long eventful journey, Molly arrived at her employer's house where the lady welcomed her and gave her a good meal.

"I would like you to help me with the children," the lady told her. "You will have to keep the house clean and tidy, and help with all the kitchen jobs too."

When the lady saw that Molly didn't have very many clothes, she decided to send her to a dressmaker to get two new dresses. She didn't know, but that visit was going to change her life!

"So, you have just come from Ireland," said Miss Bacon, the dressmaker, as she measured Molly for her new dresses. After a while she asked, "Have you ever been to a gospel meeting?"

"No, I have never heard of a gospel meeting," Molly answered. "But I will come with you and see what it is about."

Molly had heard about heaven before, but she didn't think she was good enough to go there. She had heard about hell, but she didn't think she was bad enough to go there, so in her imagination she thought she was on a middle road and she was happy enough with that.

Later that day Miss Bacon and Molly set off to a little town and there, at the age of 21, Molly heard the gospel for the first time in her life. The preacher read about the wide road and the narrow road and his subject that evening was "no middle road".

"How does he know about me and what I believe?" thought Molly. She went home from that meeting realising that it was true she wasn't good enough for heaven, but now that she knew there was no middle road, then she must be on the road to hell.

The next day she went to see the dressmaker again. "Please take me back so I can hear how to get on the narrow road to heaven" she asked.

Miss Bacon brought her to the meeting again that evening, and Molly heard about the Lord Jesus who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. She accepted Him as her Saviour and started her journey on the narrow way that leads to eternal life.

Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereto: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

Matthew 7:13,14
